

Reading Focus

Sensory details: Sensory details include sight, sound, touch, smell, and taste. Writers use the five senses to engage a reader's interest.

Task:

For AR Notes this week ONCE per day. You may choose (at home or during DEAR). please complete the following task in your AR Notebook:

Format:

[Date] [Book Title] [pages read #-#]
Sensory Details

1. The text said, "... (pg. #)
2. These are sensory details because

Example:

1. The text said, "I laid on my multi-colored beach towel as I let the grainy sand fall between my fingers. I had to put on my sunglasses because the bright yellow sun was causing me to squint. As I laid on the beach thinking I listened to the peaceful crash of the waves and the intermittent squawk of pelicans.